TODAY'S PROGRAM
DR. DAVID WINSOR
EL HOGAR IN HONDURAS

CHAIR OF THE DAY: BOB WITHERS

DR. DAVID WINSOR is an ordained minister of the United Churches of Canada, Canada's largest Protestant Church. He has served as senior minister and preacher in several large urban congregations in Toronto and Ottawa. After 15 medical missions to Honduras, Ecuador and Belize, Dr. Winsor and his wife Margo decided to become Co-Directors of El Hogar Projects in Tegucigalpa, Honduras. They were directors from 1998 to 2000.

Founded in 1979, El Hogar gives 210 hopelessly poor boys a living and teaches them in its three centers; a primary school for ages 6 to 12, an agricultural farm and school for ages 13 to 18 and a technical institute for ages 15 to 18. All graduates have been successfully employed. El Hogar is affiliated with the Episcopal Church.

In 2000 in partnership with Club Rotario San Miguel de Heredia, St. Barnabas Episcopal Church Foundation, Phelps Dodge and District 5490, The Rotary Club of Phoenix completed a $49,630 Rotary International matching grant for El Hogar. This grant enabled El Hogar to put new roofs on several Primary School Buildings, construct a large water tank and purchase teaching equipment for the technical school. In 2003 an additional $30,000 Rotary International matching grant was received for the purchase of a tractor for the agricultural farm and school.

IT HAPPENED AT CLUB 100

BY DIMITRI DROBATSCHEWSKY

When President Curtis Jennings called the 33rd meeting in the 89th year of Club 100 to order on Friday, March 7, 2003, he used an artistic and high-cultured metaphor to describe the club's excellence: "The Mona Lisa in Rotary International's Art Gallery" is how he put it, to the attendees startled applause.

George Milos read the Invocation; Dick Allen led in the Pledge of Allegiance; and Curt Bolak introduced KPHO-TV's (Channel 5) sports anchor Chris Corragio to sing, accompanied by his own guitar playing, a twangy Patriotic Song.

Ken Husband's Visitor Introductions were followed by President Curtis's reminder that the District Conference will take place in Flagstaff and that Lori Kobriger and Dick Potts will make arrangements for a bus that would transport attendees back and forth for $60.00, if enough members will show interest.

Sergeant-at-Arm Scott Irving and past president Craig Wilson extracted money through sergeant-at-arms and fowl-fining procedures, before President Curtis read Birthday Minutes to three celebrants, Lou Linxwiler, Steve Goldston and Raj Chopra. For his Secretary's Report, Sid Marable summoned Jack Mayfield (Xmas in April); Dick Jacobs (President's Ball); Howie Simon (in the appropriate tee-shirt for MS Walk); and Georgia Wolfe (Old Fashioned Breakfast).

Gary Avey then took the podium to introduce our guest speaker, Leland Leonard, Director of the Phoenix Indian Center. Mr. Leonard, who has functioned as the center's CEO for the past five years, detailed a number of important and topical issues that concern Native

The Phoenix Indian Center, the speaker said, serves as the binding link for all of Arizona's Native Americans whose issues newly include the gambling casinos and their "windfall" in unexpected revenues to the various tribes. The meeting was adjourned at 1:25 PM after a lengthy question-and-answer period.
