IT HAPPENED AT PHOENIX ROTARY 100

BY DIMITRI DROBATSCHEWSKY

President Richard Ray called the 27th meeting of the 92nd Year of Rotary Club 100 to order at 12:25 PM on Friday, January 27, and recognized four members who have returned to the luncheon after a prolonged absence. He asked Howie Simon to read the Invocation, Steve Goldston to lead in the Pledge of Allegiance, and requested that the assembled guests remain seated for the Patriotic Song. The reason for that unusual request was that the mother of Visiting Rotarians John and Jim Selway was present for her sons' performance of the Song, the first time that the gracious lady has seen her sons perform together. They recalled a bit of history before they entoned a special and embellished version of Irving Berlin's God Bless America.

After Barry Peretz recognized guests and visitors, Secretary Georgia Wolfe introduced a new member, Bill Clements, whose family history was recalled over several generations. Steve Goldston returned to the dais to make a Paul Harris presentations to Mark Johnson, Harry Findor, Jim Waring and Dean Smith. President Dick then called Andrea Allen of the Heard Museum to the podium, to present her with a "virtual" check for her organization and its historic endeavors. Linda Reynolds extracted Rooster Fines, and President Dick returned to read Birthday Minutes to past president Bob Wagner, and to Mel Edwards, a recently initiated new member who plays with expensive automobiles.

Secretary Georgia Wolfe gave her report, and announcements included an appeal for Little League activities by Andrew Dodgen, and Lori Kobriger presented the 17 year old student Chris Chavez, while extolling the virtues of the student exchange program.

Whereupon Carmo Fernandez took the podium to deliver the shortest introduction of a guest speaker within memory, presenting guest speaker Barry Broome, CEO of the Greater Phoenix Economic Council. The speaker delivered in a lively and utterly energetic address a rosy picture of the state of economic health in Arizona, citing in particular the recently announced establishment in Glendale of the AAA organization with a great number of new jobs; also Glendale Mayor Elaine Scruggs, and our own Club 100 member, State Senator Barbara Leff, for their accomplishments in furthering various other issues related to population increases and the economic growth of the Valley and the State. After a spirited question-and-answer period, the meeting was adjourned at 1:30 PM.
